Sponsorships

gtcys
PLAY YOUR PART

greater twin cities youth symphonies

Partner with the nation's largest youth orchestra program

The Greater Twin Cities Youth Symphonies (GTCYS, pronounced git-seez) empowers young musicians of all backgrounds to grow in lifelong ways through music.

With a legacy spanning 55 years, we are the nation's largest youth orchestra program, serving beginning to pre-professional musicians ages 7–18 from across the Twin Cities region and beyond.

Learn more at gtcys.org

GTCYS at a Glance

- 1,300+ students
- 11 school-year orchestras, access programs, and camps
- $330,000+ in financial aid for tuition and lessons
- Students from 250 schools
- 30 mostly free concerts
- 25,000+ audience members

Make a difference as a sponsor

As a sponsor, you will

- Receive valuable brand recognition through in-person and digital platforms
- Boost your visibility with a broad audience of families, educators, business leaders, and donors
- Enjoy special perks and concert experiences
- Support GTCYS' young musicians with transformative performances and access to excellence

Reserve your sponsorship now at gtcys.org/sponsor

Can't sponsor, but still want to support GTCYS musicians? Give the gift of music today at gtcys.org/donate

Questions? Contact Executive Director Megen Balda at megen@gtcys.org or 651.602.6802

CONCERT SPONSORSHIPS

Festival: $10,000

Support our largest, most celebratory concerts of the year, each featuring 400+ students at Orchestra Hall.

Reach up to 2,000 in-person and livestream audience members, plus 19,000+ constituents through email and social media

Choose from 6 Orchestra Hall concerts:

Fall Festival

- November 14 at 10:30am
- November 14 at 2:30pm
- November 15 at 2:00pm

Spring Festival

- May 8 at 10:15am
- May 8 at 2:30pm
- May 9 at 3:30pm

Sponsor Benefits

- Livestream recognition
- Full page ad in fall and spring program books
- E-newsletter ad
- Dedicated social media post
- Stage announcement during event
- 10 complimentary tickets & reserved seats at the concert
- Name/logo recognition in concert program, signage, emails, and website
- 10 drink tickets at concert
- Meet & greet with Maestro Smith

Symphony: $5,000

Support our flagship orchestra and pre-professional students presenting orchestral masterworks under the direction of Artistic Director Mark Russell Smith.

Reach up to 800 in-person and livestream audience members and 19,000+ constituents through email and social media

Choose from 3 concerts:

- December 16 at 7:00pm, East Ridge High School
- February 28 at 7:00pm, St. Andrew's Lutheran Church
- April 30 at 7:00pm, Ted Mann Concert Hall

Sponsor Benefits

- Livestream recognition
- Full page ad in fall or spring program books
- Dedicated social media post
- Stage announcement during event
- 6 complimentary tickets & reserved seats at the concert
- Name/logo recognition in concert program, signage, emails, and website
- Meet & greet with Maestro Smith

Community: $2,000

Support GTCYS' young musicians as they uplift community members through free public and private concerts across the Twin Cities.

Reach up to 500 in-person audience members across the Twin Cities, including schools, care centers, and other community spaces.

Choose from 15 concerts:

See our online form for date and location options

Sponsor Benefits

- Social media recognition
- Stage announcement at event
- 4 reserved seats at the concert
- Name/logo recognition in concert program

Reserve your sponsorship at least one month prior to the concert at gtcys.org/sponsor

Timing of ads will vary depending on sponsorship confirmation date

Questions? Contact Executive Director Megen Balda at megen@gtcys.org or 651.602.6802